

How to Apply for a BCCM/Hope Credit Union Small Loan

The Black Clergy Collaborative of Memphis (BCCM) is a collaboration of Black churches. Its mission is to speak the voice of the Black Church on issues of economic empowerment, civic engagement, and criminal justice reform.

Churches that are dues-paying members of BCCM or have paid into the small loan fund may refer applicants to Hope Credit Union to obtain a loan. To get a loan referral, each applicant must contact one of the individuals listed below and complete a referral form.

Each applicant will need to provide the following:

1. A $10 loan application fee.
The application fee is not refundable and can be taken from loan proceeds.
2. Documents that verify income.
Ex. Two pay stubs, Social Security award letter, Retirement income, Alimony payment, etc.
3. Proof of identification.
Ex. Social Security Number, Individual Tax ID Number (ITIN), Tennessee ID
4. Evidence of a Memphis or neighboring city address.
5. Agree to repay the loan.
6. A $10 membership and a $15 savings deposit fee.
The membership fee and savings deposit can be taken from loan proceeds.
7. Consent to BCCM sharing your information with Hope Credit Union.
